ANNUAL REPORT 2008

1. Introduction by the Mayor – Joy Whipps

When it was first suggested that I should put myself forward as Mayor, my immediate reaction was “no”! That responsibility was one I decided I could well do without. However I was persuaded to at least think about the opportunity and given some time to do so. Actually it was a whole weekend – not a lot of time. After a couple of sleepless nights and hours of discussion with my husband Alan and my sons, I decided to put myself forward and was duly elected!

I do admit that I still sometimes have to pinch myself to remind me that I am the Mayor of Exmouth. I am extremely appreciative that very few people have had this opportunity. It is indeed a great honour and privilege to be Mayor, of what I believe to be the best Town in East Devon, Exmouth.

Of course along with honour and privilege comes responsibility. The Mayor is the leader of the Town Council and undertakes the role of Chairperson at full Council Meetings.

The Mayor also represents Exmouth and Town Council at various functions locally and throughout the county of Devon which I endeavour to do to the best of my ability.

Exmouth is not just another seaside resort, Exmouth has a wonderful sense of community. This community spirit was one of the first things that struck me when I moved to Exmouth. Prior to moving to Exmouth I was living in a close-knit community in a Somerset village and I was very fearful of losing that community feeling in a “town”.

However I need not have worried; the people of Exmouth were extremely welcoming and within a few short months I realised that I never wanted to live anywhere else!

We are extremely lucky to live in Exmouth and are in danger of taking all that the Town and surrounding environment has to offer for granted. For example, not only do we have the sea, a wonderful beach and beautiful countryside, Exmouth has a number of excellent organisations.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

This year I have had the pleasure of attending a kaleidoscope of events and functions ranging from the first Exmouth Kite Festival, the annual Exmouth Festival, open days, charity fund raising events, degree ceremonies, local amateur operatic and dramatic productions, attending civic functions, meeting members of the Royal family and participating in 100th birthday celebrations.

To the Exmouth Rotary Club I am delighted to have been part of the first Kite Festival and look forward to this becoming an annual event. Thank you for raising the profile of Exmouth and including me in the weekend.

To the organisers of the excellent Exmouth Festival, which this year has grown to involve other parts of Exmouth which has not been included before, thank you so much for your hard work and dedication. As Mayor I really appreciate your efforts to put Exmouth on the map and at the same time give Exmouth's residents a really fun time during the Whitsun holiday.

The British Legion organised a visit to Exmouth for Russian veterans from the Arctic Convoy from World War 2. The Russian veterans' visit culminated in their participation in the Remembrance Day celebrations which was a memorable occasion. The Russian visit itself was very successful and the veterans enjoyed their visit as much as we enjoyed entertaining them. My thanks go to the British Legion for all their hard work in arranging the visit of the Russian veterans, and for making the visit such a success. I thank the British Legion for inviting me to take part in some of the functions organised for the veterans.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the organisations who have invited me to take part in their various functions over the past year. It has given me the unique opportunity to meet a great number of interesting and fascinating people. I have always been warmly received and made most welcome. Many of these people work selflessly and quietly behind the scenes in support of their organisations and in many ways are the unsung heroes of Exmouth.

The future of Exmouth relies on the young people of today. I am heartened by the work undertaken by the numerous youth organisations operating within Exmouth and this has prompted me to direct the Mayor's charitable giving this year to local youth organisations.

I would also like to thank the Exmouth Town Councillors for giving me the opportunity to become Mayor and believing that I could do the job.

Last but not least I would like to thank the Town Clerk, John Wokersien for his expert guidance and support to me as Mayor. To all the staff of the Town Council for all their help and good humour over the last year. To Garth Gibson our excellent Town

Crier who has been a pillar of strength to me at the various functions we have attended. To Tony Collins who has in such a short space of time made quite an impact on Exmouth. Also to my husband and sons, without their love and support I would not be able to function as Mayor. Thank you.

2. Achievements in 2007/8

‘The Council’s Mission

Here is a reminder that the Council, like all organizations has a mission and this is summed up in the following words:-

- To improve the quality of life for Exmouth residents, the experience of visitors and build on the characteristics which make Exmouth special.

To go with the Mission is the Town Council’s slogan:-

- ‘Exmouth Naturally – Arts, Leisure and Environment’

The slogan sums up so much of what Exmouth aspires to be and future changes should take account of this.

Over the past year some of the achievements of the Town Council include running of Exmouth Festival, Hosting a seminar for Coastal Towns to develop joint working to help create a recognition for the need to invest in our Coastal Towns, strong involvement in the continuing promotion of Exmouth Interpretation Centre project, removal of hundreds of items of graffiti throughout the town, removal of flyposting, provision of flower towers and financial support for Exmouth in Bloom displays, effective consultation on hundreds of planning applications, leading the improvements to the Town Centre CCTVC system, provision of Christmas Lights with Exmouth Chamber of Trade and Commerce and local businesses, leading the community safety group dealing with boy/girl racers, assisting many people to access local government through its modern and welcoming reception at the Town Hall and giving face to face contact with ‘the Council’.

This year is marked by the adoption of a blue print for future development of the Town Centre, agreement to implementing a local projects fund, support and involvement in driving forward regeneration schemes for the town.

Town Management promoted and partly funded by the Town Council is growing from strength to strength under the guidance of Town Manager Tony Collins who is fulfilling the brief for the job with enormous commitment and energy. This is important to ensure that businesses in the town are brought up to speed with regeneration proposals and able to take advantage of new opportunities which will arise.

The Town Council was awarded this year with a certificate of achievement by East Devon District Council for its growing and developing Festival which is this year linking with Exmouth Rotary Kite Festival to put on a spectacular concert by Joey the Lipps on the Imperial Recreation Ground.

In Exmouth the Exmouth Action Group meets regularly and has objectives to deal with pressing issues in the town. A S30 dispersal order in the Town Centre has proved to continue to be significant in reducing disorder problems in the Town.

The CCTV Control Centre has been upgraded to digital operation to extend its future life for many years to come. The number of convictions and prevention of escalation of trouble in the Town Centre particularly at night continues to be impressive helping to keep the peace in a potentially volatile environment.
